We will try to read and respond to comments as time allows.

- If you prefer to say your comment directly, click the “raise hand” button and – at the appropriate time in the agenda - we will unmute your microphone. The button looks like this:

If we are not able to hear you, we will ask you to submit your question or comment using the “Question” tab.

This is new for all of us. We apologize in advance for any technical “glitches.” We look forward to a successful meeting and we thank you for your patience.
