DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Deputy Probation Officers investigate cases of juvenile and adult applicant cases for probation; to prepare juvenile and adult recommendations for the courts. The major duties of the job include (all duties may not be performed by all incumbents):

Deputy Probation Officer I: This is the entry level class in the Deputy Probation Officer series. This class is distinguished from the Deputy Probation Officer II series by the performance of the more routine tasks and duties assigned to positions within this series. Employees at this level are not expected to perform with the same independence of direction and judgment on matters related to established procedures and guidelines as are positions allocated to the II level. Since this class is typically used as a training class, employees may have only limited or no directly related work experience. Employees work under immediate supervision while learning job tasks.

Deputy Probation Officer II: This is the full journey level class within the Deputy Probation Officer series. This class is distinguished from the Deputy Probation Officer I by the assignment of the full range of duties assigned. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise and they are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies within the work unit. Positions in this class are flexibly staffed and are normally filled by advancement from the I level.

Deputy Probation Officer III: This is the Journey level class in the Deputy Probation Officer series. Positions at this level are distinguished from other classes within the series by the level of responsibility assumed and the complexity of the duties assigned. This classification assists the Supervising Deputy Probation Officer in planning, assigning and reviewing workloads.

- Maintain an assigned juvenile and/or adult caseload; counsel and guide juvenile and adult probationers including those in crisis situation; analyze emotional and behavioral disorders.
- Assess clients' needs and develop and maintain current treatment plan; monitor compliance with the terms and conditions of probation.
